

Feeling a bit blue this winter?

Frustrated by staff that are not doing enough or loving their work?

Confused when staff are doing great at some jobs and not firing on others?

Over the constant questions when you know they should 'get this' by now?!

OR

Unsure about YOUR next business or career move?

Unclear about which path to choose – feeling a bit stuck?

Spinning around in circular thinking – doubting yourself or your capacity?

Leading people (or leading yourself for that matter) can be one of the most challenging roles you will ever have and knowing what to do in every situation is hard to work out! However, the good news is you CAN learn the fundamental knowledge & skills that enable you to effectively lead your people to success.

With Lisa G, you can learn how to

- Understand how your attitude and language is impacting others
- Change from telling or yelling (!?) to enabling conversations
- Uncover how your staff really feel about their work and what they need to be successful
- Choose the best leadership strategy to enable self-reliance and achievement
- Use coaching skills that GROW your team to their best potential
- Get into action again by making the decisions you've been putting off about your next steps
